Did not receive orders to attend Bruree Petty Sessions until 1 July 1876. Has an enormous amount been entrusted attending Petty Sessions by the performance of other duties, such as the investigation of charges and advice to disturbed districts, attendance at races, fairs, &c., to assist in the preservation of the public peace, attendance at Assizes and Quarter Sessions in the Counties of Limerick and Kerry, and attendance at Petty Sessions in an adjoining district by order of Government.

Miller, Wm. Moore	Armagh	Armagh	Armagh	—	53	32	54	47	60	44	The Petty Sessions of Armagh and Keady are held on the same day and the Resident Magistrate attends at Armagh as the most important, but is prepared to attend at Keady if asked to do so by the Justices. The same is to be remarked of Newtownhamilton and Markethill, and in many other places. The Justices generally intimate to the Resident Magistrate that it is not necessary for him to attend unless they write to him yet in spite of that information he does attend when possible

Starke, William R.	Queenstown	Queenstown	Queenstown		295	307	306	253	236	230	Received appointment to Queenstown District 1st September 1875. Petty Sessions held at Queenstown three times a week until 19th October 1875, on which date it was changed to a daily Petty Sessions by resolution of Magistrates at Quarter Sessions. Owing to a change early in the year 1877 of the starting of steamer for Passage, which, since then, leaves at the hour of opening the Queenstown Court, only attends Passage Petty Sessions when there is important business, and at request of magistrates
